

Pacific Judicial Conference - 'Domestic violence' session

Pacific Prevention of Domestic Violence Programme (PPDVP)

Presenter – Programme Manager Cam Ronald – NZ Police

Outline

- Is Domestic Violence a problem in the Pacific? – Presentation of some country survey results and numbers of cases reported to Police
- PPDVP - Aims, Activities, Main components
- Partnership with Pacific Islands Chiefs of Police (PICP) organisation – 20 countries in pacific
- Role of NZ Police staff and Mentors with local Police and communities
- Community Engagement - Highlighting work with White Ribbon Day and working with NZ Rugby to Carry a Non Violence Message to a target audience of young men
- Survey of Police staff – Attitudes to Gender and Sexual Based Violence –
 - o Outline of some of the findings of the survey of police staff in five pacific countries
 - o Response mechanism to address these findings
- Testing Knowledge, Attitudes and Practice in managing reported cases of domestic violence
 - o Current testing of how effective training and take up of concepts has been